

Carriage Parc Estates – 2008 Annual Lighting Contest

On December 22, 3 homeowners who volunteered to judge the lighting contest strolled through the community and enjoyed the neighborhood displays.

The winners are as follows:

Most Colorful: 2709 E Pegasus – it's the house on the South East Corner of Pegasus and Orion. They always have an attractive display, and this year, it looked particularly festive and colorful.

Best Holiday Spirit: 1050 N Portland – This family always has a nice holiday display and this year the Santa figurine sitting on the bench sealed the deal of Best Holiday Spirit.

Most Creative: 2509 E Drake– These folks went above and beyond in their display. They had a REAL snowman in the front yard and a 2D moving, lighted tree mounted to the chimney!

The neighbors were happy to receive their gift cards for winning
And the volunteer homeowner judging the contest had fun viewing
All the wonderful displays in our community.
